Based on your response, I think it's best that I send the Firm devices that I received and that you ordered me to return via my counsel. Unless there are delays on their end, you should receive the Firm devices that I received sometime next week.

If you have any termination/departure related communications, questions, or requests, please have your or the Firm's counsel communicate those inquiries or requests to my counsel.

Regards,

Kaloma

I do not have anything more to add. As I said, I think it best that your counsel discuss these questions with the Firm's counsel.

Thanks for responding. You've sent me multiple emails about my "departure date" and those emails included requests and documentation related to me answering or confirming a number of questions. I'm simply asking you (and the Firm) to answer two questions:

1. Has Davis Polk terminated my employment?
2. If so, what is the effective date of such termination?

If you provide me with a simple "yes" or "no" and (if applicable) a date, I will direct all remaining questions to my legal team. If you are unable or unwilling to answer those questions, please let me know.

Regards,

Kaloma
